

establish special protective tariffs. During the illness of Fonseca the Government is really conducted by Constant and Barbosa. Dom Pedro declares himself in favor of the naturalization measure taken by the Provincial Government.

The same cable says that the Portuguese Foreign Minister, De Gomes, desires that if arbitration be decided upon in the controversy between Portugal and England over African affairs, President Harrison and the German Emperor be jointly asked to act as arbiters.

LONDON, December 22nd.
The Brazilian Legation announces that the illness of President Da Fonseca is not serious.

LISBON, December 22nd.
Dom Pedro and the Empress of Brazil to day started for Colmar. News of the Provisional Government's action suppressing the allowance to the ex-Empress, has been withheld from him by the advice of his physicians.

RIO JANEIRO, December 22nd.
Besides the suppressing of Dom Pedro's allowance, orders have been issued for the confiscation of his property, and for doing the return of the imperial family to Brazil.

LISBON, December 23rd.
Senor Gomez, the Portuguese Minister of Foreign Affairs, in reply to the note of Lord Salisbury relative to the movement of Major Serpa Pinto in Africa, says the Major did nothing to warrant the accusations against him. He did not order an attack on the British flag, but merely repulsed hostile natives, among whose baggage after the fight three British flags were found. In conclusion, Senor Gomez asks Lord Salisbury to await the receipt of further information concerning the affair before he takes action.

A dispatch from Serpa Pinto dated October 15th at Muggurumita, reports that the British flag was hoisted at several places on Portuguese territory, and that the natives had raised a British flag opposite the camp of the Portuguese railway survey, which had been removed by Major Diaz. On November 9th, the Governor of Mozambique, word that Serpa Pinto had requested the natives to lower the foreign flags, and notified them that the request was not complied with, the Portuguese would have them taken down with due honors and send them to Quilimane to be restored to the Consul there.

The provisional government has determined to pay the pensions formerly paid by Dom Pedro out of his private fortune. The army, which at the time of the revolution numbered 14,000, is increased to 20,000.

The restoration by the monarchial party in Rio was, from the first, more serious than reported.

Cipher telegrams from Rio give brief particulars of a monarchical uprising there on December 14th. The revolt is described as extremely formidable. The insurgents, composed of soldiers, sailors and civilians, joined by a number of naval and military officers, paraded the streets holding defiance to the ordinary police and military force. An augmented force of troops was brought against the rebels and serious fighting ensued, lasting until the morning of December 20th, when the revolt was suppressed and the rebels dispersed. Many of those who took a leading part in the revolt have been arrested.

Dom Pedro attended mass at the Lapa Convent at Oporto to-day, and afterwards visited the chapel in which was deposited the heart of his father.

NEW YORK, December 23rd.
John L. Sullivan to-day refused to box Kilrain at New Orleans in February for $500.

NEW ORLEANS, December 23rd.
Articles of agreement have been signed by Kilrain and Vanquelin for a six-round glove contest, Marquis of Queensberry rules, to take place in this city Jan. 19, 1890, for a purse of $500, of which $150 goes to the winner, $50 to the defeated pugilist. The money is put up by Vanquelin. If Kilrain fails to knock Vanquelin out in six rounds he loses the fight.

BRUSSELS, December 23rd.
Smith and Slavin fought this morning on private grounds, three miles from here. The struggle was for the heavyweight championship of England. The friends of both parties squabbled from the outset. The Smith party seemed inclined to prevent the meeting, and placed every obstacle it could in the way of bringing the men together. At the ring-side the proceedings were disrupted. The ring was finally broken into and the fight decided a draw.

Smith fought Slavin to the ropes in the seventh round, when some of the crowd kicked Slavin several times. Neither Smith nor Slavin's seconds made protest against this action by the ring-siders.

In the eighth round Slavin knocked Smith down. The spectators again attacked Slavin in the ninth round and struck him repeatedly.

In the thirteenth round Smith's sympathizers again attacked Slavin, Smith having been again knocked down.

In the fourteenth round Slavin made an appeal to the crowd for help. The sympathizers of Smith decided him and raising a cry of "Police!" bolted. Smith also fled, but Slavin remained in the ring. The alarm of police proved false, and Slavin returned with his followers, but the referee refused to allow the fight to go on. He said it was impossible to obtain fair play and declared the fight a draw.

Slavin showed the effects of the fight but little at the end of the contest, and was as full of fight as at the beginning.

NEW YORK, December 23rd.
A private cablegram says Slavin claimed the fight in the ring after Smith withdrew, but Referee Vasey was intimidated by threats against his life and refused to allow the fight.

A special cable to the World from its correspondent at Rio de Janeiro, gives an interview with President Da Fonseca. The substance of Fonseca's statement is: "The safety of the republic is assured. The people have long been waiting to establish a republic, but the proper moment to strike the blow arrived only lately. Had an inopportune time been selected, failure would have resulted. Dom Pedro was personally very popular, and there was no personal objection to him. The revolution was purely against monarchical principles."

ZANZIBAR, December 23rd.
Though Emin Pasha is recovering from the effects of the recent accident at Bagamoyo, the German doctors are not giving him any hope that he will be safe to remove him outside of these weeks.

The information that the Greeks will soon make efforts to suppress the war against the Christians was received in Crete with enthusiasm by the persecuted portion of the population.

The Yelken Club has resolved to send a letter to Slavin, the Australian pugilist, expressing sympathy for him in the brutal treatment accorded him in his fight with Smith and admiration for his courage. The club also decided to ROME, December 24th.

The Pope to-day received in the Sacred College of Cardinals, the Supreme Council or Senate of the Church. In addressing this chosen body of advisers, the Pontiff said: "In these times, when the church is assailed and persecuted because it is the stronghold of faith and truth, it is a consolation to know that among the children of the church themselves there is perfect unity." His Holiness announced that he would shortly issue an encyclical letter, defining the duties of Catholics in this crisis.

MADRID, December 24th.
During the performance at the opera-house this evening, an accident to the electric light machinery caused a panic, a cry of fire having been raised. By the efforts of the actors and managers the alarm was checked and the audience dispersed quietly. The Queen Regent and Infanta Isabel, who were in the royal box, remained standing during the commotion and were the last to leave the house.

ST. PETERSBURG, December 25th.
The Car suffered severely from the influenza to-day, and was too ill to attend the regular Christmas church service. He was also compelled to omit the customary review and parade of the guards.

LISBON, December 28th.
The influenza prevails to such an extent among the soldiers of the garrison here that it will probably prevent the proposed review on the 28th inst., on the occasion of proclaiming Don Carlos, King of Portugal. The King himself is also suffering from the influenza.

SCOTT'S Emulsion of Pure Cod Liver Oil with Hygienic Food, for Rickets, Marasmus and all wasting disorders of children, is very remarkable in its results. The rapidity with which children gain flesh and strength upon it is very wonderful. Read the following:—"I have tried Scott's Emulsion in cases of wasting in young children, and am of opinion that it is a valuable preparation for such cases. The children take it and ask for more, and the good effects are apparent. I consider it far superior to ordinary Cod Liver Oil."
